3 Objectives

- 3.1 The objectives of this policy are to:
- (a) minimise the risk of Directors, employees and contractors of the Group contravening the laws against insider trading;
 - (b) ensure the Company is able to meet its reporting obligations under the listing rules of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX Listing Rules) and the Corporations Act; and
 - (c) increase transparency with respect to dealing in Securities of the Company (including shares and options) by its Directors and key management personnel.
- 3.2 To achieve these objectives, Directors, employees and contractors of the Group should consider this policy to be binding on them in the absence of a specific exemption by the Board.

4 What is insider trading?

- 4.1 The Corporations Act prohibits persons who are in possession of information that is not generally available to the public, and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of securities (Price Sensitive Information), from:
- (a) dealing in the securities; or
 - (b) communicating the Price Sensitive Information to others who might deal in the securities.
- 4.2 Information is generally available to the public if, amongst other things, it consists of readily observable matters or it has been brought to the attention of investors by an announcement made on the announcements platform of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and a reasonable period for its dissemination has elapsed since the announcement.
- 4.3 Directors, employees and contractors of the Group will from time to time be in a situation where they are in possession of Price Sensitive Information. Examples include information which may have a material effect on the Company's financial position and information regarding a major transaction which is being negotiated.
- 4.4 For these reasons, if any person believes that they may be in possession of Price Sensitive Information, the advice of the Compliance Officer should be sought prior to any dealings taking place during any period set out in clause 7, and steps should be taken to ensure that the Compliance Officer is advised of all relevant considerations by the person proposing to deal.

5 No dealing in Securities of the Company when in possession of Price Sensitive Information

- 5.1 Directors, employees and contractors of the Group in possession of Price Sensitive Information must not at any time:

- (a) deal in Securities;
- (b) advise, procure, encourage or suggest another person deal in Securities; or
- (c) communicate the Price Sensitive Information, or cause the Price Sensitive Information to be communicated, to a person who may deal in Securities or may procure another person to deal in Securities.

5.2 A contravention of the insider trading prohibitions is an offence and exposes a person to criminal and civil liability, including liability under civil damages actions and compensation orders. The penalties for a breach of the insider trading prohibitions are serious and include severe fines and imprisonment.

5.3 Key management personnel should ensure that external advisors who receive Price Sensitive Information are bound by a confidentiality agreement or other enforceable confidentiality obligations under professional standards.

6 Short-term dealing in Securities of the Company

6.1 Directors and key management personnel must not at any time engage in short-term dealing in Securities of the Company without the consent of the Compliance Officer.

6.2 Short-term dealing is considered to be dealing where the acquisition and disposal of Securities occurs within six months of each other.

7.2 Subject to the restrictions in clauses 5 and 6, Directors, employees (including key management personnel) and contractors of the Group may exercise any option that has vested at any time and may dispose of any resulting Securities subject to compliance with clause 7.1..

- 9.3 Approval is intended as a compliance monitoring function only and is not an endorsement of the proposed dealing. Directors and key management personnel remain responsible for their own investment decisions and compliance with the law.

10 Notification of dealings in Securities of the Company

- 10.1 The ASX Listing Rules require the Company to notify ASX of dealings in notifiable interests in Securities by Directors within five business days.
- 10.2 Directors must notify the Chief Operating Officer and the Company Secretary of the Company immediately after dealing in any Securities and provide the Company with the requisite details of the dealing for the Company to comply with the ASX Listing Rules.

12 Margin lending

- 12.1 ASX, in its Companies Update dated 29 February 2008, highlighted that in certain circumstances, the Company may be required to disclose details of the margin lending arrangements of Directors and key management personnel in respect of their Securities (if any), if that information would be material information under ASX Listing Rule 3.1. To enable the Company to comply with ASX Listing Rule 3.1, any Director or key management personnel of the Company who enters into margin lending arrangements or otherwise encumbers their Securities of the Company (Security Arrangements) is required to provide details of those Security Arrangements to the Compliance Officer upon entering into, and on any change (other than a trivial or minor change) occurring to, the Security Arrangements. Security Arrangements may be subject to prohibitions on dealing in Securities of the Company contained in this policy.
- 12.2 The details of the Security Arrangements which must be provided pursuant to clause 12.1 must include the number of Securities involved, any trigger points, the right of the lender or security holder to sell the Securities unilaterally and any other material details.
- 12.3 Directors and employees of the Company may take out margin loans over their holdings in Securities. However, Directors and employees must not allow a margin call to be met by the sale of the Securities at a time when they would not be able to sell those Securities themselves under this policy.

It is incumbent on each Director, employee and contractor of the Group to take reasonable steps to ensure that an associate does not deal in Securities in contravention of this policy where the dealing could be attributed to the Director, employee or contractor concerned. For this purpose “associates” include your spouse, family members, other relatives, entities which you control (such as self-managed superannuation funds or family trusts) and entities you are acting in concert with.
- 14.3 The following types of dealing are excluded from the operation of this policy:
